The Bulldog Angels Fund is a vital resource for students in crisis when all other options for assistance are exhausted or unavailable.

The Bulldog Angels Fund was established in 2014 by Bill, Deborah, and Blake Howell to benefit SWOSU students in times of crisis. It is a vital resource when all other options for assistance are exhausted or unavailable. The Bulldog Angel Fund helps students with extreme financial pressures to stay enrolled in classes and on campus.

What does the Bulldog Angels Fund mean to past recipients?

"I am sincerely honored to have been selected as a recipient of the Bulldog Angels Fund. Thank you for your generosity—I will be graciously accepting it. This opportunity means so much to me as a senior who is trying to finish school while having so many bills to pay. The funding will go a long way for me while I continue searching for a job."

"With the help of this fund, I will be able to further my career goals in helping the students of western Oklahoma. In fact, the only reason I will be able to complete my Master's degree in school counseling is because of the reduced financial burden due to your support."

"I was in a position that I was going to have to make very difficult decisions regarding my education. Your generosity has enabled me to finish my final semester and complete my bachelor's degree, which will allow me to give my children a better life."

Bulldog Angels Program Impact:

The Bulldog Angels Fund has steadily made grants enabling struggling SWOSU students to move forward. Student organizations and groups on the SWOSU campus have enthusiastically made the Bulldog Angels Fund a priority for fundraising and advocacy.
